

Dear Student,

Thank you for participating in this week's Math Problem of the Week. This week you could win a selection from our math prize box. If you enter a correct answer below, you have a chance to win!! If you have a question, come to the office at lunch recess and ask for Tyler K.

Room #:

Name:

Primary Math Problem of the Week

Linda has 34 candies. Chloe has 28. How many candies do they have in all?

Answer: _____

Tell us how you came up with your answer:

Room #:

Name:

Junior Math Problem of the Week

Five friends buy a package of 12 cookies and want to share them equally. Each friend will get $\frac{1}{5}$ of the cookies. How much will each friend get?

Answer: _____

Tell us how you came up with your answer:

Room #:

Name:

Intermediate Math Problem of the Week

Bob's aunt gave him $83 to spend on clothes at the mall. He bought 3 shirts that cost $7 each and a pair of pants that cost $31. How much money does Bob have left to buy more clothes?

Answer: _____

Tell us how you came up with your answer:
